This is to inform you of the hardship it has caused me when the post office was closed at Hacker Valley.

I am a widow. I live 10 mile plus from the nearest post office. I do not drive much, in winter very little.

I receive my medicine in the mail. I would have to drive or have someone take me to the post office to mail packages to friends and family. I will not put money in my mail box. If everyone knows it's there. It wouldn't be there long.

Thank you, Doris Jordan
